LINDSAY Thank you. (Coughs)

HALEF Oh, Sidi! She really is a dream! Ahhh! She appears to be floating! Oh, to be alone with that girl! I'd trade seven sheep to speak to her.

KARA What would Aida say if she knew.

HALEF Oh, Sidi! My Aida is a wonderful wife but somehow, she doesn't understand these things.

BENDA Hh.

LINDSAY Hh.

BENDA My Lord, a little more tea?

LINDSAY Yes, thank you. With pleasure. Thank you kindly, hh hm. Oh by the way, Archie, I want you to remind me to add a short chapter to my memoirs to describe, in my best manner, the various... hh... dangers we've encountered in our travels through Kurdistan.

ARCHIE If you'll allow me to make a remark, your Lordship has written thirteen chapters on the subject, in the first draft of the book.

LINDSAY Oh... thirteen chapters... really ? I'll be dashed! I must say I'd forgotten all about that. However, now, I've discovered certain new aspects of these dangers which will warrant my writing a new chapter.

ARCHIE You'd better not! Your wife and your Majesty!

LINDSAY Bless her!

ARCHIE Of course, might disapprove of your interest in extra-archeological material.

LINDSAY Yes, yes, quite so, Archie! Then I'd really best forget the whole delightful subject, in spite of the pleasure it would've elicited! You may be right.

ARCHIE I'm afraid I am, My Lord.

INGDSCHA Hh.

AHMED Ingdscha! Allah made a work of art when he created you!

INGDSCHA I can read that in your eyes, what do you read in Ingdscha?

KADIR BEI I do regret that you feel you must leave us, Effendi.

KARA One should never overstay one's welcome. Sorry my friend.

KADIR BEI Wise words, Effendi, but after you've gone, the Chaldeans'll remember how our American friend saved us from that treacherous Machredsich.

KARA Yes, Machredsich fell off the cliff but we never found his body. Hm, it seems quite improbable he could've survived through, but who knows with such a man. We might see him again.

LINDSAY Hh, you've my permission to call me an old donkey if that Machredsch is still alive.

HALEF Aha hah!

BENDA Ahahah.

LINDSAY What's the matter ?

ARCHIE May I respectfully point out, Mylord, there's an illustration of what you mean behind you.

LINDSAY Hhhh!

AMBIANCE

LINDSAY Ahahah, well it would seem I've made an ass of myself!

KARA We all do, now and again.

INGDSCHA Kara Ben Nemsî, please take me to my grandmother Marah Durimeh, I won't be a nuisance and it'll only mean a small detour. She's a wise old woman, and so kind.

KARA I've never met her.

KADIR BEI Ingdscha's grandmother, Marah Durimeh, is struggling to obtain for us, Christians, equal rights with Moslems. Hhh, she lives in the Nedjin mountain where the Chaldean treasure is hidden. No one is better suited than you, Kara Ben Nemsî, to escort my daughter.

KARA That's very nice of you, Kadir Bei, but... it's a responsibility to accompany your daughter and her servant across Kurdistan.

KADIR BEI Benda will remain with us here, whereas Ingdscha knows Kurdistan and she's as brave as any man.

INGDSCHA Hhh.

KARA I'm sure she is.
INGOSCHA Than you will take me with you!

III

BENDA I wish I could have gone on this trip.
LINDSAY Oh.
BENDA Are you staying here too, Mylord ?
LINDSAY I'll be delighted to keep you company.
ARCHIE Oh, my Lord, remember why you are in Kurdistan.
LINDSAY Oh yes, duty first.

REEL 2

ALI Hh... Kadir Bei, an important message for you!

KADIR BEI Important enough to interrupt the festivities ?

ALI I've heard two men talking, one of them was Abu Seif, the father of the Saber, the other man I didn't know.

KADIR BEI And what have you heard ?

ALI They were planning to steal the Chaldean treasure from Marah Durimeh.

KADIR BEI Are you certain that it was Abu Seif ? Can you swear it ?

ALI I swear it. On my life.

202

KADIR BEI Kara, I must talk to you.

KARA Has he brought you some bad news ?

KADIR BEI He overheard Abu Seif, head of a group of bandits and another man plotting to attack Marah Durimeh to steal the Chaldean treasure.

HALEF As truly as my name is Hadschi Halef Omar Ben Hadschi Abdul ben Hadschi David El Gossarah, I'll swallow it if I don't... if I don't...

KADIR BEI I will ride at once with my horsemen.

KARA Wait a minute, Kadir Bei. I think you'd better remain here. in Chaldea. I have a feeling the other man could be Machredsch. If he wasn't killed, he's one of the most dangerous men alive! It's for me to fight him again, Kadir Bei.

KADIR BEI But I must see Marah Durimeh.
